2015 Junior Lesson Program – Additional Free Golf for Participants!

Overview: The physical fundamentals of the game as well as etiquette, the life skills inherent to the game and having fun will be the focus of the lessons. For the beginner and those new to Edelweiss, these lessons will also spark curiosity in the game of golf and provide an opportunity to meet new people. For those with some experience or those who have already participated in our program, these lessons will build upon past learned skills.
